ATOMIC SKETCH EVENT: Book Release and Signing with John Airo,
*The Legend of Henry Brewer: The Axe Man

CHICAGO (December 5, 2011) – Atomic Sketch Event (ASE) along with Green Eye Lounge, is proud to host the Chicago release of the new graphic novel, The Legend of Henry Brewer: The Axe Man on Thursday, December 29th, 2011 from 6 pm to 11 pm. Written by James Di Angelo, of Red Moon Features, and illustrated by Chicago artist and longtime ASE supporter, John Airo, Di Angelo tells the story of a small farming town in 1930's Iowa being terrorized by, not one, but two serial killers. John Airo has provided a dark and haunting backdrop to Di Angelo's story, giving each page a chilling life of its own.

In addition to the unique art being created each month at the ASE, John Airo will be signing copies of his book and will also be available for interviews.

Atomic Sketch Event is a monthly event featuring a panel of established and emerging artists from around Chicago, creating and selling art immediately after it's created at an affordable price. ASE is always free and open to those 21 and older. The Green Eye is located at 2403 W. Homer in Chicago.
